

Auditions for Pirates of Penzance

Roles

There are lots of singing parts in this show--from maidens to officers and yes, pirates! We need lots of people of all colors, shapes and sizes, and most ages (16 years and up)!

Location

W. Campus Theatre

Times

Monday, February 6 - 6 - 9 pm

(Note: February 7 auditions cancelled due to Precinct Caucus night.)

Wednesday, February 8 – 6 – 8 pm

Callbacks

Saturday, February 11 - 10 am

Performances

April 13, 14, 20, 21, 27, 28 at 7:30 pm and April 15, 23, 29 at 2 pm, West Campus Theatre

Note: For the Feb. 6 audition, email Roberta.Cullen@century.edu for an audition slot on the hour—either 6, 7 or 8 pm. List your full name and phone number in the email; put “Pirates Auditions” in the subject line.

Wednesday, Feb. 8 is an open call; arrive anytime between 6 and 8 pm.

ALL AUDITIONS:

Arrive dressed to move and plan to sing for one minute. (Bring sheet music for your song.)

You will learn a simple routine in a group and then perform it. Auditions are held in a fun and relaxed atmosphere.

Selected individuals will be called to participate in the acting auditions on February 11.

Pirates of Penzance at Century

The same great artistic team that created the sold-out run of Cabaret in '09 is reuniting to bring this musical comedy to the Century Theatre stage! Randy Winkler will be directing and choreographing the swashbuckling pirates, dainty English maidens, and resolute London police officers! Shirley Meyer will be summoning music from the players to float the story along. Marya Hart will be blending all the gorgeous voices singing the topsy-turvy tales! Will Slayden will be revealing a treasure of a scenic landscape. Lisa Mangone will accent the rich nature of the characters with her costumes. And through Grant Merges' illumination, ocean shores and English manors will sparkle in both sun and moonlight!