Century College to Host First Asian Alumni Event

Friday, April 11

Century College will host its first-ever Asian Alumni reception on Friday, April 11, from 6 to 9 p.m., on the college's East Campus Lincoln Mall. The event is intended to celebrate that Asian student enrollment at Century has more than tripled in the last 10 years, with Asian students currently make up about 12 percent of the student body.

The event will honor Century graduates, celebrate the career successes of Century's Asian alumni and reconnect this group with Century. Refreshments will be served and traditional dancing will be performed by the Mee Dance School.

The evening's keynote speaker will be Kazoua Kong-Tao, chair of the St. Paul School Board. Alumni service awards will be presented to Cheu Lee, Dr. Kou Bliaxa Vang, Paxeng Xiong and David Yang for their dedicated service to the community.
