Century College Hosts Mahtomedi Superintendent April 23

The public is invited to attend a free luncheon event at Century College on Thursday, April 23, featuring Dr. Mark Wolak, superintendent of Mahtomedi Public Schools, and Denise Waalen, assistant superintendent. The event will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Century College's East Campus Lincoln Mall.

The speakers will provide an overview of the results-based "balanced scorecard system" and discuss how it can be used as a tool for continuous improvement in schools.

Dr. Wolak has been superintendent of the Mahtomedi Public Schools for seven years. He has worked in education in Minnesota for 32 years, with prior experience as a principal, special education director and paraprofessional. He has a particular interest in leadership, change and continuous improvement, and is also an avid sailor with more than 20 years of skippering experience on Lake Superior. He and his wife Julie live in Pine Springs and have four adult children and one grandchild.

A complimentary box lunch will be provided. Please RSVP to Sue Klecker, Century College special events coordinator, at 651-773-1792.
