Century College Hosts Job Search Expert Amy Lindgren Monday, April 20

Nationally-syndicated employment columnist and job search expert Amy Lindgren will talk about “winning career strategies for uncertain times” on Monday, April 20, from 3 to 4 p.m. on the Century College East Campus Lincoln Mall. The event is free and open to the public.

Known for her witty and practical presentations, Lindgren will discuss skill building, networking, standing out in the professional market, balancing long-term and shorter career plans and changing careers.

Lindgren is president and founder of Prototype Career Service, now in its 25th year, and she has helped thousands of dislocated workers and job seekers in their job search and career planning. Her column appears in newspapers around the country, including the St. Paul Pioneer Press. She is also the author of the employment guide “Job Search for Students” and is a frequent guest on public radio.

The event is sponsored by Century College Career Services. For more information, please call 651-779-5774.
