Get Re-Wired at Century College's Plus 50 Open House

May 19

Century College will host an open house for ageless learners on Tuesday, May 19, from 4 to 7 p.m. on the Lincoln Mall of East Campus.

Participants of all ages can explore options to get re-wired, re-hired and re-inspired. Attendees can learn about new classes and register on-site for Continuing Education classes, or explore short-term credit certificates. Representatives from Mahtomedi Community Education, Workforce Centers, Vital Aging Network and Job Works will be on hand to answer questions. Century counseling and admissions personnel also will be available.

Century College has been honored by the American Association of Community Colleges to serve as one of only five colleges in the nation to mentor other community colleges in developing innovative programs for learners over the age of 50. Currently, Century's focus has been on "PrimeTime" and "Adult Options" programming for adult learners ages 25 to 50, who make up 36 percent of the student population at Century.

Located in White Bear Lake, Century offers over 60 areas of study and 40 different programs. People who are attending college for the first time or coming back for continuing education or degree attainment will find that Century offers a distinguished faculty and a warm, inviting learning atmosphere. Adult learner benefits include online learning, fast-track classes, high-demand training and early-morning, evening and Saturday offerings.
