Century College Orchestra and Choir Concert May 9

The Century College Chamber Orchestra (Elliot Wilcox, director), the Century College Choir (Jocelyn Kalajian, director) and the Normandale Concert Choir (Marc Jaros, director) will present a spring concert featuring music by G.F. Handel, Johannes Brahms and Benjamin Britten on Saturday, May 9, at 3 p.m. in the Century College Theatre.

The orchestra will perform movements from the Serenade No. 2 in A by Johannes Brahms, a piece that highlights winds with low strings. The combined choirs numbering 80 voices will perform Benjamin Britten's "Hymn to St. Cecilia," an emotional and provocative work honoring St. Cecilia, the patron saint of music and musicians.

Finally, the orchestra, both choirs and professional guest soloists will present G.F. Handel's "Ode for St. Cecilia's Day." Admission to the concert is free and a reception will follow.
