Century College to Host Resume and Interview Workshop for Job Seekers May 20

Century College will host a free resume and interview preparation workshop for job seekers on Wednesday, May 20, from noon to 2 p.m. in the East Campus Kopp Technology Center, 3300 Century Ave. N., White Bear Lake. The public is invited.

Attendees will receive help with resume and cover letter preparation and job-interview strategies. Century College English faculty members will be teaching the workshop. The event is sponsored by the Century College Alumni Association. Refreshments will be provided.

Job seekers should bring info about their job history with specific dates and locations, previous schooling, dates of graduation, list of special skills, accomplishments, volunteer work and information about jobs for which they are interested in applying. Also, a draft resume and cover letter would be helpful to bring, saved and retrievable electronically, if possible.

Community members and students are welcome, but space is limited to 60 participants. Registration will be on a first-come, first-served basis. To register, please email Sue Klecker, Century College special events coordinator, or call her at 651-773-1792. Participants should register by May 19.
