Century Hosts MLK Guest Lecturer Tyrone Bledsoe Jan. 26

Motivational speaker Dr. Tyrone Bledsoe will give the Martin Luther King guest lecture at Century College on Thursday, Jan. 26, at noon in the student center on the lower level of West Campus. His topic will be “Cultivating a Passion for Success: From Vision to Action.”

Bledsoe plans to examine the daily challenges that may be impeding people’s progress in life. He will present the concept of “maturing in success,” which often requires navigating some rough waters. He plans to give tips on how to achieve success and come to terms with one’s purpose in life. Audience members will be engaged in affirmations that can be used daily as they strive to reach their potential.

Bledsoe is the founder and executive director of the Student African American Brotherhood Organization and former vice president for student life at the University of Toledo.

Sponsored by the Multicultural Student Center, the event is free and open to the public. For more information, please call the Multicultural Student Center at 651.773.1794 or email Herbert King.
